

Disorientation

An introduction to radical lawyering

“The National Lawyers Guild is dedicated to the need for basic and progressive change in the structure of our political and economic system. Through its members--lawyers, law students, jailhouse lawyers and legal workers united in chapters and committees--the Guild works locally, nationally and internationally as an effective political and social force in the service of the people.” - www.nlg.org

Featuring

John Brittain

Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights. Howard Law School Graduate. Extensive Experience in a number of areas of public interest law including civil rights, and international human rights. Former President of the National Lawyers Guild 1991-3. Former Dean of Thurgood Marshall School of Law at Texas Southern University in Houston.

Zachary Wolfe

Thomas Ruffin

& other distinguished guests

Friday September the 16th, 2-6 p.m.

At the University of D.C. David A. Clarke School of Law

4200 Connecticut Ave. NW

2nd Floor in the “window lounge”

www.dcnlg.org www.nlg.org students@dcnlg.org